Dear Readers,

Warm greetings and welcome to yet another edition of our Centre Point School Newsletter.

Each New Year brings with it a lot of hope, new beginnings, and opportunities to start afresh with a new set of goals. Goals should be something that we strive for, day in and day out throughout the year, something that will enrich our daily life and something that we can realistically conquer.

It has rightly been said 'Every success story is a tale of constant adaption, revision and change.' It is this change that has always prompted us to learn, unlearn and relearn because we want to evolve into a better us. At Centre Point School we welcomed the New Year with the release of the new logo and motto, a clear symbol that we are taking a leap forward towards new initiatives and experiences but of course with our rich legacy beneath our wings.

It is our endeavor to continue on the path of excellence and to equip our children to face the challenges that the future holds. We encourage and motivate our students to be lifelong learners, to be stars in their own right... to discover the magic that lies dormant within them thus enabling them to SHINE ON!!!

Wishing you all a Happy 2023..... and welcome to our new philosophy of Shine On!!

The values highlighted were TRUTH, RIGHT CONDUCT, LOVE, NON-VIOLENCE and PEACE. Two kathputlis (puppets) as hosts took the audience on a journey of Truth in China and a children's singing reality show followed by the exemplary story of Rani Durgawati who personified right conduct. Then Love between a father and a daughter was portrayed as the heart-rending story of Rabindranath Tagore's Kabuliwala. In the backdrop of the Syrian crisis, the story of Non- violence was established. Finally, the tale of Alexander the great culminating in his death lead to the realization that Peace is invaluable.

A Chinese Emperor and his Queen set out to test 'Truth'

CPSKR TEACHERS TAKE THE STAGE TO ENTERTAIN THEIR STUDENTS ON CHILDREN'S DAY!

Like every year, the Mukhtangan in Centre Point School, Katol Road resonated with cheer and laughter on Children's Day as the dynamic teachers took the stage to put up an enjoyable and memorable event for their children who had joyfully surrounded the red building dressed in their traditional best.

The event began with the morning prayer 'Maker-of-All' led by a group of teachers, after which Shilpee Ganguly Ma'am, Principal Director of Centre Point Group of Schools lovingly addressed the children wishing them a very happy Children's Day. The Thought for the Day and News were then read with an imitative and chucklesome twist building momentum for the event. A Ganesh Vandana performance by the teachers filled colour in the air leaving many a tiny eye sparkle with amazement. No sooner had the soaring spirits settled than the next performance by one of their music teachers got the young ones humming along the beats of the song that echoed under the radiant sun. The teachers' choir and the Torrins Mentor Team carried the fervour further with a scintillating medley that hooked one and all. A hilarious anticlimactic drama presented by the sporting teachers' crew was really the icing on the cake which left the children in splits to bits.

This sentiment of the children soon turned into a silent admiration for their dear teachers just as they saw them gracefully walk down the stage they seemed to have just converted into a special ramp as they highlighted the best of fashions in monochromatic Black and White outfits, encouraging the silence to slowly break in to an applause. A final dance performance by their favourite expert dance teacher brought the event to a perfect closure.

Among all these moments of fun, this special day still had the children at the centre stage of it all with the spotlight being shared by the best dressed girl and the best dressed boy from each section being felicitated by Renu Singh ma'am and Delnaaz Kapoor ma'am amidst applause from the peers. It was for sure an event to be cherished.

CPSWN CYBER CONGRESS CONDUCTS INFORMATIVE WORKSHOP FOR CLASS 4 STAFF

The Cyber Congress at Centre Point School, WN aims to raise awareness about cyber threats and preventive measures to protect all Center Pointers, whether they are students, teachers,

Cyber Ambassadors interacting with the support staff non-teaching staff or class 4 staff. The cyber ambassadors conducted a session on 'Cyber Security and Preventative Measures' for all Didis, Bhaiyyas, Security Guards, and Bus Drivers in September.

They began by informing them about real-life incidents via PowerPoint presentations and videos. Through active discussions, they presented how hackers and identity thieves thrive on personal information shared on social networks or how posting specific photos on social media could endanger their jobs, relationships, and identity and that once an image has been shared, one can never be sure who has seen it, saved it, or shared it. Personal information or embarrassing pictures in the wrong hands can lead to bullying so it is critical to take proactive steps to protect the information.

Cyber Ambassadors addressing the support staff

The support staff putting forth their queries

The dangers of randomness were the next crucial issue for discussion. Clicking on unfamiliar links or visiting unfamiliar websites on the computer, phone or even smart TV. The audience realized that it could expose them to covertly downloaded software designed to harm or disable their computer or other devices. They may be in trouble if they visit an unsafe website and malware is installed.

A few precautionary measures were also discussed such as device security, the padlock icon, two-factor authentication and the use of secure passwords.

The topics covered during the presentation also included a video by the Delhi Police as well as a toll-free number "1903" and a government website for filing online cyber complaints was shared.

Cyber Ambassadors explaining security measures

The efforts of the Cyber Ambassadors to spread awareness on crucial issues were applauded by the school management and staff. They were encouraged to continue with their noble initiative in the days to come.

CYBER AMBASSADORS CONDUCT QUALITY CIRCLE TIME AT CPSWN

With the rapid advancement of technology, cybercrime has become a major concern, and

QCT session in progress

everyone must be aware of how to deal with it, as cybercrime can have serious consequences. As a result, this topic was chosen for Circle Time by the Cyber Security Cell at Centre Point School, WN in order to prepare students for any situation that may arise.

Cyber Ambassadors were assigned to 6th, 7th and 8th grades. The entire class was asked to sit in a circle, and the session began with a typical circle time, i.e. revising skills which was followed by a small game consisting of a stem sentence - "If I was an app, I would be ___" in which students described themselves as an app.

The main activity then began in which the students were divided into 4-5 groups, and each group had to come up with scenarios involving cybercrimes. Children selected topics like Cyberbullying, Cybercrime, Scams or Online Frauds etc. During the circle time, all of the groups presented their situations, and students from other groups suggested solutions. Following each situation, these solutions were discussed and summarized. As a result, the students gained a thorough understanding of how to deal with such situations.

To conclude, there was a small summarization activity with a stem sentence in which each student had to say "I'd like to text [anyone from the circle time], that [anything they learned from the session]"; this helped to efficiently summarize the entire session, and the session was finished with 5 minutes of meditation.

The Cyber Congress ambassadors were ably guided by their mentor, Mrs. Smita Chakankar and lauded by the school management for their noble initiative.

With the tastefully packed packets complete with hand-written Diwali greetings ready to be presented, the programme began on a lively note as the 'special guests' for the day, the 70 maids and peons assembled in the lobby. Appreciating the festive look of the venue with the beautifully drawn rangoli by the Class X girls, they lent a solemn ear to the rendition of Ganesh Vandana. Listening to the School Captain, Adya Girhe's touching speech expressing her heartfelt gratitude, on behalf of all the students for the service done by them all year long brought many a smile on happy faces.

While the maids thoroughly enjoyed displaying their artistic hands creating beautiful rangolis earlier in the day, the peons had a great time playing rounds of 'Dumb Charades' themed on Bollywood movies.

Reiterating the gratitude that everyone felt for them for their unending services not only for teachers but also for children, Mrs. Kanchan Ukey, the School Principal wished them a prosperous and safe Diwali and hoped that the mutual feeling of respect would remain alive and grow with each passing year.

classes 9, 10 and 12, which was followed by a musical performance and address to the students by the President of EMM club. The skit portrayed that even students, although being young, battle many mental health issues like depression, anxiety, insecurity, etc. which can not only affect their studies and other interests but also hamper with their physical health. It illustrated that labels do not define who a person is and that what is normal for one may not be normal for another. In order to go forward we need to tear past these stereotypes, break the bonds of normality and realize that it is our uniqueness that defines us.
